

OLD KIRBY PLACE

on the Madison River

NEWSLETTER

What's New?

- Guide Service: Gary Evans will run his fishing guide service out of the Old Kirby Place. This will provide better service to those guests using Gary and his guides. For those guests using guides other than Gary, the Old Kirby Place will still assist in making your arrangements.
- Dining: We are arranging to have a variety of professional fly fishing guides join our guests for drinks and dinner. Having different guides, we believe, will be a terrific way to learn about fishing in the Madison Valley, not to mention the inevitable "fish stories".
- Website: We have revamped the website. Take a look and tell us what you think. Suggestions are welcome.
- Fly Fishing Photos: The website has a section for fly fishing photos. Please send us your favorite pictures as we would love to post them on the web.
- Remodeling: We plan to make a couple of changes. The driveway and parking area will be relocated to provide closer access to the rooms and also to give an unobstructed view of the Madison River and the mountain scenery from the front porch. We will also move a couple of walls around in the upstairs of the main house which will open up the rooms a little better. We hope you like these changes.

from Walter...

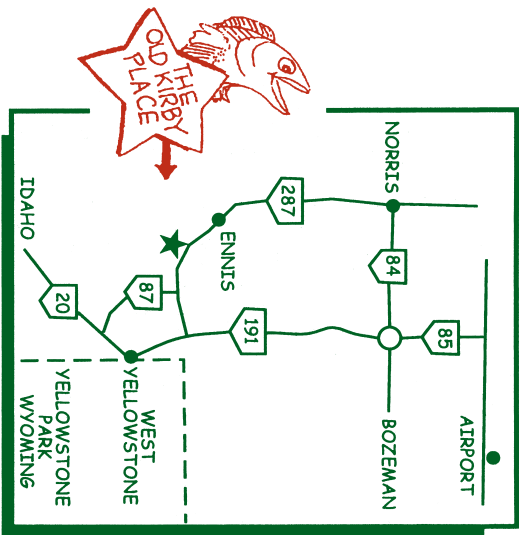

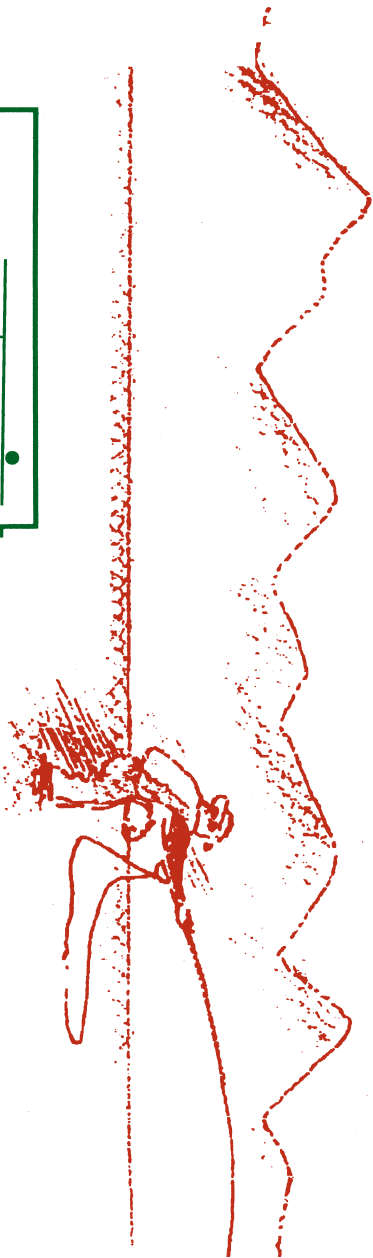

The more things change, the more they remain the same. This adage certainly applies to the Old Kirby Place.

As many of you know, I sold the Old Kirby Place to Bruce and Renie Alverson last year. Although I ran it as I had for the past 16 years, this year I am going to cut back on some of the "chores". I will be doing less of the day-to-day work and will do more of what I enjoy the most – hosting my guests and friends. Gary Evans, a long-time local fishing guide, who most of you know, will manage the Old Kirby Place. He has hired a staff to handle the daily operations such as reservations, housekeeping, maintenance, shopping and certain of the cooking responsibilities. This will free me up to do as much, or as little, of the cooking as I want and, more importantly, to spend more time with my guests.

I have started a wide-plank flooring business with my grandson, Garnet. It is in Norris, about 40 miles from the Old Kirby Place. This new arrangement will allow me more time to help Garnet get the flooring business up and running.

I am excited about the new changes as they will allow the things I like the most at the Old Kirby Place to remain the same. Plus, I will have more time to visit with my friends and guests and otherwise enjoy myself.

See you soon, Pardners!
